

The Second Annual Tree of Knowledge Estates Block Party (Buckboard Road, Stagecoach Road, Surrey Lane) was held on September 7th. A great time was had by all.

Cultural Alliance Annual Event

Fun and Games, this year's annual event sponsored by the Duxbury Cultural Alliance, (DCA) on Sunday, Sept. 29, features a day of exhibitions, lectures, musical performances and entertainment for all ages. All events are free.

The day starts with a breakfast and game of cards at the Senior Center from 9-11 a.m. $7 per person. (Reservations should be made by noon on Thursday).

Visitors are invited to an opening reception at the Art Complex Museum from 1:30 - 3:30 pm. View exhibitions, The Inner Eye: Pinhole Photographs by Jessica Ferguson and Rotations: Complex Tools and Inventions and an exhibition of contraption art Gadgets, Gizmos and Games, at the Art Complex Museum.

From 12 - 4:00 pm, visit Past Times at the Alden Museum to view an exhibit of antique toys and games from the collections of the DRHS and Alden Kindred of America.

The Duxbury Free Library is presenting an interactive program, Cape Cod and Islands Challenge, based on a trivia board game created by Gordon Mathieson. Mathieson will speak on his latest book, Quisset. This program is scheduled for the Merry Room at 2:00 pm. Games will be available in the Children's Library.

The South Shore Conservatory will provide a Name That

Tune program by Suzuki Violin students, at the Ellison Center from 2:30 - 3:30 pm. Also at the Ellison, the DAA is holding an opening reception for Games People Play, featuring artwork with images of games, from 2:00 - 4:00 pm.

The King Caesar House is hosting a comprehensive photographic exhibit of classic boat's from Duxbury's past, Yachting On Duxbury Bay from 1:00 - 4:00 pm.

The Duxbury Bay Maritime School will be welcoming visitors throughout the day.